CATC Sponsors Healthy Minds and Bodies

ORANJESTAD, ARUBA – Caribbean Accounting & Tax Consultants was proud to be a sponsor of EPI’s “The Fittest School” event. The event held at Palm Beach Plaza Mall was organized by a group of students from EPI which brought MAVO schools together to compete against each other for the title of The Fittest School. Ultimately, the top prize went to St. Augustinus College from San Nicolas.

CATC supports initiatives such as The Fittest School event for the contribution and impact it makes on the overall well-being of our youth. Healthy minds and bodies are essential elements in developing productive professionals who are capable of working well in teams and are able to exhibit great leadership qualities. Because at CATC we embrace and welcome young professionals with integrity, determination, enthusiasm and team spirit.

On behalf of CATC, congratulations to the winners and all participants.
